Honor Our Heroes!

A Landmark to Honor Our Heroes and Preserve Our Heritage

From the pioneering days of the American West to the Great Indian Wars, the Civil War and beyond, the High Plains have been home to many of our greatest American Heroes and Legends.

Located in Hays, Kansas, the General Hays Veterans Memorial will serve as a landmark where Patriots and Families can gather, reflect and pay homage to our Heroes of the High Plains, both past and present.

The Pentagon Foundation and Star pattern of five individual planes each represent a branch of Our Armed Forces. In Honor of the Self-Sacrifice of our Brothers and Sisters, our Entrance Plaque reads:

“Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.” – Jesus

Historic Fort Hays Veterans

In November 1866, Fort Fletcher was renamed Fort Hays in honor of Major General Alexander Hays.

For decades this historic Fort served as the headquarters of U.S. Cavalry Units and Heroes such as:

5th Cavalry Regiment

In September 1868, the 5th Cavalry Regiment began duty against hostile Indians. William F. “Buffalo Bill” Cody first distinguished himself as chief guide and scout.

7th Cavalry Regiment

In 1866 General Custer was sent to Kansas as Lieutenant Colonel of the newly formed 7th U.S. Cavalry Regiment.

Following its activation, the 7th Cavalry Regiment patrolled the Western plains protecting the westward movement of pioneers.

9th Cavalry Regiment (Buffalo Soldiers)

On August 3, 1866, Major General Philip H. Sheridan authorized one of the first historic regiments of “colored” cavalry, designated the 9th Regiment of the U.S. Cavalry.
